

Education-Human Development and Family Studies

The following USAC Specialty programs offer courses and internships targeted to the academic needs and interests of education and human development and family studies majors and minors. Please visit USAC.edu for course descriptions and terms offered; and speak with your academic advisor to see how you can best fit study abroad into your University of Nevada, Reno degree program. Syllabi are available upon request at syllabus@usac.edu

Italy – Reggio Emilia
Child Psychology	PSY 233
Comparative Education	HDFS 400
Early Childhood Education	EDUC 494
Education for a Changing World	EDUC 494
Gender Issues in Education	EDUC 494
Gender, Race, and Identity	WMST 490
Italian/International Educational Approaches: Reggio and Montessori	EDUC 494
Italian/International Education Approaches Field Study*	EDUC 494
Models of Teaching	EDUC 495
Multicultural Education Issues	EDUC 494
Foreign Language Teaching Internship	TBD

Spain – Alicante
Applied Linguistics: Foreign Language Teaching Methodology	SPAN 441
Foreign Language Teaching Internship	WLL 495
Spain – Bilbao
Seminar in Developing Effective Teaching Skills	EDUC 495
Foreign Language Teaching Internship	TBD

Spain – San Sebastian
Seminar in Developing Effective Teaching Skills	EDUC 495
Foreign Language Teaching Internship	TBD

Other Language Teaching Opportunities
USAC Course Title	Location	UNR #
Teaching German as a Foreign Language	Lüneburg, Germany	WLL 495
Teaching English as a Foreign Language	Shanghai, China	WLL 295

Course offerings must meet minimum enrollments and are subject to change.

Course offerings must meet minimum enrollments and are subject to change.